

ROCKBRIDGE AND MISS EARLY DONNA WIN IN FAIR RACES

Horses Take Both Events in Three Straight Heats—Time Fast.

Fast time and the winners taking both races in three straight heats were the features of the second day of racing on the Springbrook track at the county fair yesterday afternoon.

The opening event, the 2:20 trot, was won by Rockbridge, owned by J. P. Jones of Memphis, Tenn., and piloted by Dunn. Rockbridge was not pushed in the event and came to the front in all three heats in the fast time of 2:14 1/2, 2:14 1/2 and 2:14 1/2. The purse captured by the winner was $400.

Can't Help It, driven by Cauffman, and owned by H. A. Cauffman of Elkhart took second money in the event by taking two thirds and a second. Jimmie Toke, property of Orrville Quick of Laporte, and piloted by Quick, won third money by finishing second, fifth and third in three heats. Baby Doll took fourth by finishing fourth twice and fifth once. Baby Doll is a Gary horse owned by R. A. Bothwell and driven by Miller.

Miss Early Donna, the winner, and Peter C., second money, furnished the thrills in the second race of the day's program, the 2:13 pace. Though Miss Early Donna won the event in three straight heats, Peter C. pushed her all the way and finished a close second in each heat. The two horses showed lots of class, the time for the heats being 2:13 1/4, 2:13 1/4 and 2:13 1/4. Miss Early Donna is a St. Louis horse owned by M. Freund and was piloted to victory by Vickery. Peter C. is owned by W. M. Muster of Valparaiso, Ind., and was driven by Muster. The purse was $400.

John Gilhooly, driven by Brooke, also a Laporte horse, won third money by taking two thirds and a fourth. Bob Cochato, driven by Poik, finished fourth by taking a fourth, a fifth and a third.

Some fast races are booked for today. There will be three events, the 2:12 pace with a purse of $500, the 2:14 trot, also a purse of $500, and the 2:24 trot with a purse of $400.

Koehler To Meet Forster In City Title Play Today

Tennis Stars to Battle for Championship on Leeper Park Courts.

In the finals of the tennis tournament for the championship of South Bend and Mishawaka which will be played at 2 o'clock this afternoon on the courts at Leeper park Dr. H. E. Forster will meet Koehler in the battle for the title.

This is the second time this year the two net stars have fought their way through tournaments to the finals to meet each other and today one of the most spectacular matches ever witnessed in the city is anticipated.

Recently Forster and Koehler met in the finals in the Leeper park tournament and Forster won after a hard fought battle. Both men are evenly matched with Forster having a slight shade. Both are experienced and furnish plenty of thrills by their play.

They reached the finals yesterday when Koehler defeated Andrus in the semi-finals and Forster downed Roger Williams of Mishawaka in two sets 7-5 and 6-1. Williams pushed Forster at the start but the South Bend man opened up and Williams was unable to stand the pace. Forster played a brilliant smashing game. Koehler's victory over Andrus came largely through Andrus' own erratic playing.

A double tournament for the championship of South Bend and Mishawaka will be started in the near future. Entries may be made at Leeper park.

HERE SHE IS AGAIN

HAMLIN, Minn., Aug. 23.—

For the first time in the history of the Great Western racing circuit, a woman will drive in the harness events to be held at the Minnesota state fair, September 2 to 9. It was announced today. She is Mrs. H. M. Bryan, of Bismarck, N. D., who is said to be an experienced driver and trainer of horses. She has been handling the reins over race tracks in the Dakotas for several years. Mrs. Bryan is entered in three events.

PLAY OF WESTERN LADS FEATURE OF TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Johnny Hennessey of Indianapolis and Westbrook of Detroit Show Class.

BOSTON, Aug. 23.—(By A. P.)—

The national lawn tennis double tournament play at Longwood Wednesday was marked by a demonstration of youthful strength by a pair of western lads, Walter Westbrook of Detroit and John Hennessey of Indianapolis, who battled the Australian Davis cup team, Gerald L. Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood, through three extra game sets before being eliminated. The scores were 7-5, 8-6, 8-6.

Equally convincing of the country's potential tennis strength was the play of the junior champions, Arnold W. Jones and W. W. Ingraham of Providence, who won a set from the playing through champions, W. T. Tilden, H. and Vincent Richards. The boys were 6-3, 6-4, 4-6, 8-6. At the close they were still fighting hard and Tilden and Richards called on all the court craft they could muster to win.

Wednesday's play completed the third round, W. M. Washburn and R. E. Williams of Washington, D. C., and the Kinsey brothers, Pacific coast titlists, advancing while the victories of the Australians and of Tilden and Richards pushed them to places at the bottom and the top respectively of the semi-finals.

The players must meet William Johnston and Wallace Johnson for the other semi-final place in the upper half, and Williams and Washburn will be opposed by Jean Borotra of France and N. W. Niles of Boston for the bracket with the Australians in the lower half.

The Longwood courts became a three-ring circus, three magnified Wednesday, when nine tournaments got into swing. The juniors and boys national singles and doubles events were carried along at the old courts, while at Chestnut Hill the national doubles championship was accompanied by the national mixed doubles, the national veterans doubles, the national fathers and sons and the women's invitation singles tournament.

The national mixed doubles championship inaugurated Wednesday brought together several notable partnerships, including some international alliances. The national men's and women's champions, Mrs. Mollie Burested Mallory and "Burr" Tilden, teamed again. Miss Helen Wills, the girl star, had as partner Robert Kinsey, her fellow Californian. Mrs. W. M. Henry of Los Angeles, played with Count de Gomar of the Spanish Davis cup team, and the latter's team mates, Manuel Alonso and Jose Alonso also took part with women players.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE TO DECIDE FLAG SATURDAY

The managers of the Industrial Baseball League met in the School Administration building last night to discuss plans for the final game, Saturday between the Studebaker and Cutter teams, which will decide the championship.

The umpires were tentatively selected and the game will be held on the Singer diamond if possible, and if not, on Carter field.

It was suggested that a banquet be held soon for the members of the various teams in the league and at that time the organization for next year will be discussed. The general impression was that the league games as played this year under the direction of the Recreation Committee were more successful than any previously scheduled.

Pillette One Of American League Finds Of Season

Youngster Pitches Winning Ball for Cobb—First Year in Big League.

BY BOBBY EVANS

The American league has uncovered some mighty fine young pitchers among the 1922 recruits.

Good pitchers are hard to get. Scouting does not come through in his first year. However, in this respect, the American league has been very fortunate during the present season.

Of all the likely recruits who have blossomed forth, none stands out more prominently than Herman Pillette of the Detroit Tigers.

In spring training Pillette was simply a pitching recruit. He wasn't figured on to play any part in the Tiger's chances. Yet today he is the pitching ace of the Detroit staff.

Pillette came to Detroit from Portland, owner Nativ Paid $40,000 for him and Johnson. The latter was the pitcher the Tigers really wanted. Pillette was thrown in.

Portland finished last in the Pacific coast league in 1921. With a tail-end club Pillette was lost 19 games, a better average than his team's standing.

Had Their Doubts
Last winter I talked with a number of Coast league players about Johnson and Pillette after owner Nativ of Portland had paid such a fancy figure for them. They all seemed to think that Johnson would make good, but had their doubts about Pillette.

So much for expert testimony! Pillette already has spilled all the advance dope on the two pitchers.

He stands more than six feet tall. He has a rather peculiar delivery, that makes it appear as if he should get more on the ball than he actually does. His pitching style is disconcerting to the batter and makes it difficult to accurately time his ball.

He has good speed, a pretty fair curve and a side-arm fadeaway on his fast ball. This style delivery is a very queer one. The only other pitcher I ever saw use it was Ernie Shore, once a star with the Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees.

Hard to Hit.
Pillette uses all his speed on this ball and keeps it low. When it nears the plate it breaks down and out, much after the manner of a spitball. It is hard to hit effectively as the batsman usually tops it.

The most interesting part about Pillette is that he goes about his work like a veteran despite the fact that he has been in the majors only a month.

Nothing seems to worry him. He has plenty of nerve. His disposition couldn't be better. It means nothing in his life if an umpire misses a perfect strike. He simply pitches, and lets the umpire do the umpiring.

Pillette's most recent bit of good pitching was against the New York Yankees when he beat them twice in a four-game series. In the final game of this series, with only a two-day rest, he shut out the hard-hitting Yankees with two hits, one a home run.

In all probability the original scout who caused the Detroit owner to part with Pillette.
